Spring Break

We are open during spring break, please make sure to get your kids on the list ASAP so we can properly staff daycare for that week and also plan a few fun activities based on age range/groups.

Fundraiser

We are looking into doing a few more fundraisers this year and we're wondering what ideas you the parents may have. You can talk to me at daycare about your ideas or shoot an email to abchuskies@yahoo.com. We will also have a suggestion box being added next to the sign in area for any suggestions you may have for daycare/staff.

Positive Changes

The positivity in daycare has been improving!!! The younger children are saying "no" and "stop it" less and less which is helping tremendously, they are also learning what we expect them to do vs just hearing only what we don't want them to do.

Billing Update

Not that this will concern many parents but we have signed up with a collection agency. Most of our parents pay their bill on a regular basis which we are very thankful for. Unfortunately there are a select few that have not been as kind or responsible. So with the new bill/newsletter are two forms we need you to fill out. They are updated version of our new enrolment form. You can find the handbook online or read the new updated section while in daycare next time before signing the form.
