February 2023

"If I expect my children to be kind, gentle, compassionate, and respectful, I must be kind, gentle, compassionate, and respectful. Children do not listen to the instructions of hypocrites; it is your actions that guide their actions, not your lectures or punishments."

~ Rebecca Eanes

Household Changes

What happens in the household affects children even while at daycare. When something is disrupted in their everyday life it can cause them to act out or have a need for extra attention. We would love to help give that attention but in order to do that we need to know if something is disrupted such as parents being away for a bit, a death in the family, or a friend moving away. Anything that can alter your child's mood and needs drastically. You can keep your life private for sure but let us know if there are some major changes so we can give the care that is needed to them.

Spare Clothes

The weather is changing, and the kids are growing like weeds. Please change out your children's spare clothes to make sure they fit properly. As we start to go outside more you are welcome to leave a jacket at the daycare for safe keeping. But please add your child's name to the tag or place everything in a Ziplock bag. Items needed are shirt, pants, underwear, socks and a jacket if wanted. Each child should have one spare outfit on hand for safe keeping.

March Events

We will be having a Saint Patrick's Day party on the 18th. Please make sure your child comes to daycare wearing green. The Sherman Kid Zone is also hosting a Saint Patrics Day party on the 14th from 5:00-7:00 pm.

The Daycare will be closed on March 22nd.
