June 2023

“Every child has an inner timetable for growth, a pattern unique to them... Growth is not a steady, forward upward progression. It is instead a switchback trail; three steps forward, two back, one around the bushes, and a few simply standing, before another forward leap.”

Vacation

A friendly reminder that the daycare will be closed on June 22nd and 23rd. All staff is taking the time to have a much-needed vacation. We thank everyone for understanding.

Summer

Thank you for everyone cooperating with the summer schedule. We have a lot of children this summer, more than we are used to and we are trying to make it work with everyone. But with that in mind last minute drop-in days that are not okayed with staff will not be an option. We are full Monday through Friday and unless given enough advanced notice we won't be able to add random days unless we can work with another parent and switch their days.

Water Play

We will be trying to play in the water more this year weather permitting. We have reusable water balloons that the kids can play with that are not a choking hazard or a mess to clean up. If parents could send a swimsuit and a beach towel, we would greatly appreciate it. Also make sure that each child has spare clothing that fits them to change into after getting wet and or playing in the dirt.

Complaints & Concerns

Please remember to feel free to bring up any complaints or concerns to staff and or Mika. We appreciate the feedback and ideas on ways to improve daycare.
